PORTFOLIO PERFORMANCE VS BENCHMARK

INVESTMENT STRATEGY VS REG 28 PORTFOLIOS

Unconstrained investment mandates provide Foord with more investment tools to achieve long-term inflation beating returns and to better manage the risk of loss compared to prudentially compliant (Regulation 28) portfolios. Accordingly, unconstrained mandates are ideal for discretionary savings that are not required to be invested in terms of Regulation 28 limits. The Investment Strategy vs Regulation 28 Portfolios chart compares the investment returns of the unconstrained Foord Flexible Fund of Funds to Regulation 28 mandates managed by Foord (the Foord Balanced Fund returns are net of fees and therefore have been used for direct comparative purposes). The chart shows that the Foord Flexible Fund has outperformed the Foord Balanced Fund by approximately 2.4% per annum since its inception, illustrating the long-term opportunity cost of investing discretionary savings in a Regulation 28 portfolio.

COMMENTARY

- Global equities (-4.1%) fell after seven straight months of gains—slowing global economic growth amid growing uncertainties around new COVID-19 variants, Evergrande contagion, energy supply issues in Europe and China, and global supply chain difficulties giving rise to higher inflation all dampened enthusiasm
- Developed market bond yields rose on worries that rising global inflation may not be as transitory as first believed—while Chairman Powell continues to walk a fine monetary policy line, it is becoming increasingly probable the US Fed will begin its bond tapering program within the next two months and we continue to expect a lift-off in rates sometime in 2022
- Industrial commodities iron ore (-24.9%) and copper (-6.2%) fell on concerns of a slowdown in Chinese economic growth compounded by Chinese power supply constraints as oil (+7.6%), gas (+87.5%) and coal (+53.4%) rose sharply as alternatives—precious metals platinum (-4.8%), palladium (-22.6%), silver (-10.5%) and gold (-3.3%) moved lower on US dollar strength, with palladium impacted by continued auto production problems
- Foreign assets (-0.3% in rands) detracted marginally as the fall in global equities was offset by the weakening currency—the US S&P 500 market index hedges provided some protection while resources stocks such as Freeport McMoran (-10.6% in dollars) and the fund's Chinese holdings detracted
- The FTSE/JSE Capped All Share Index (-3.1% in rands) was dragged lower by the resources sector (-9.3%) and industrials (-0.8%) with financials (+1.7%) pulled up by select banks and life insurance companies—healthcare company Aspen (+39.5%) contributed meaningfully as the company continued to re-rate from an oversold position
- The All Bond Index (-2.1%) fell as yields across the curve moved higher in line with rising global bond yields—the core holding in the short and medium-term sector (-0.6%) outperformed as longer dated maturities suffered steeper losses
- The rand (-3.8% vs the US dollar) weakened on broad-based dollar strength and negative emerging market sentiment with investors now more actively positioning for a moderation of the prevailing accommodative US monetary policy and the subsequent rise in interest rates—the currency remains vulnerable as the short-term platinum group metals price terms of trade bonus starts to dissipate

FEE STRUCTURE

The annual fee is based on portfolio performance fee with the daily fee rates being adjusted up or down based on the portfolio's one-year rolling return relative to that of its benchmark and is subject to a minimum fee rate.

PERFORMANCE FEES

Performance fees align investor and manager return objectives by rewarding the manager for outperformance while penalising the manager for underperformance. Foord's performance fee structure increases or decreases the daily fee levied based on the over- or underperformance of the Foord unit trust portfolios relative to their benchmarks. When the portfolio return exceeds the benchmark return, the daily performance fee rate is increased proportionately. Similarly, underperformance causes the daily performance fee rate to decrease proportionately. Performance fee rates are not capped for the reason that outperformance is generally not earned smoothly.

The annual fee is adjusted up or down daily by the performance fee calculated as the difference between the rolling one-year net-of-fee return and the benchmark return for the same period, multiplied by the performance fee sharing rate.

Collective Investment Schemes in Securities (unit trusts) are generally medium- to long-term investments. The value of participatory interests (units) may go down as well as up and past performance is not necessarily a guide to the future. Performance is calculated for the portfolio. Individual investor performance may differ as a result of the actual investment date, the date of reinvestment and withholding taxes. Performance may be affected by changes in the market or economic conditions and legal, regulatory and tax requirements. Foord Unit Trusts does not provide any guarantee either with respect to the capital or the performance return of the investment. Unit trusts are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing. Foord Unit Trusts does not engage in scrip lending. Commission and incentives may be paid and if so, this cost is not borne by the investor. A schedule of fees and charges and maximum commissions is available on request. Distributions may be subject to mandatory withholding taxes. Portfolio information is presented using effective exposures. A fund of funds invests only in other Collective Investment Scheme portfolios, which may levy their own charges, which could result in a higher fee structure. A feeder fund is a portfolio that, apart from assets in liquid form, consists solely of units in a single portfolio of a Collective Investment Scheme which could result in a higher fee structure. Foord Unit Trusts is authorised to close the portfolio to new investors in order to manage the portfolio more efficiently in accordance with its mandate.

UNIT PRICE

Unit trust prices are calculated on a net asset value basis, which is the total value of all assets in the portfolio including any income accruals and less any permissible deductions from the portfolio. Forward pricing is used. Prices are determined at 15h00 each business day and are published daily on www.foord.co.za and in national newspapers. The cut-off time for instruction is 14h00 each business day.

TER

A Total Expense Ratio (TER) is a measure of a portfolio's annual expenses, fees and charges, expressed as a percentage of the average daily value of the portfolio. These expenses include the annual fee, VAT, audit fees, bank charges and costs (excluding trading costs) incurred in any underlying funds. Included in the TER, but separately disclosed, is a performance fee (or credit) resulting from overperformance (or underperformance) against the benchmark. A higher TER ratio does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TERs. Performance return information and prices are always stated net of the expenses, fees and charges included in the TER. The TER for the fund's financial year ended 28 February 2021 was 1.92%.

FOREIGN INVESTMENT RISK

The portfolio may include underlying foreign investments. Fluctuations or movements in exchange rates may cause the value of underlying foreign investments to go up or down. The underlying foreign investments may be adversely affected by political instability as well as exchange controls, changes in taxation, foreign investment policies, restrictions on repatriation of investments and other restrictions and controls that may be imposed by the relevant authorities in the relevant countries.
